Editorial Policy

Literature in Language Teaching Journal, the refereed research journal of the Literature in Language Teaching (LiLT) Special Interest Group, invites previously unpublished research articles and research reports on using literature in language classrooms in Japanese and Asian contexts. Submissions from international contexts are accepted if applicable to language teaching in Japan. Further details can be found at <liLTsig.org>

The editors encourage submissions in eight categories:

- (1) FEATURE ARTICLES: Full-length articles, (Feature Articles, FA) detailing research or discussing theoretical issues. Between 2500-4000 words.
- (2) LITERATURE IN PRACTICE: Slightly shorter, more directly practical than Feature Articles. Descriptions of how teachers use literature in their classes. Explain clearly for other teachers to be able to readily apply. 2000-3000 words.
- (3) Interviews with SIG members and others of note: about themselves, their ideas and their teaching experiences using literature. Maximum 2500 words.
- (4) Write-ups by presenters themselves of their recent presentations (format somewhat akin to proceedings)
- (5) Well-grounded presentation and discussion of student work as it relates to learning language and literature. Up to 3,000 words.
- (6) Conference reports by attendees at literature-themed events.
- (7) Comments on previously published LiLT Journal articles (Talk back).
- (8) Book and media reviews (Reviews).

Articles should be written for a general audience of language educators; therefore, statistical techniques and specialized terms should be clearly explained.

Authors are responsible for the accuracy of references and reference citations.
